Recent Guest Reviews of Summit Resort

Some friends and I visited Summit Resort for a long weekend in January, and I expect it will be the first of many trips to this lovely place. The best thing about the resort is its location right on Walker Mountain. The view from any room is stunning, and we could ski or snowboard straight out onto the slopes from the resort's back entrance. Walker Mountain has slopes for all skill levels, and the chairlifts are reliable. In the evenings, we had dinner at the resort's Highland Grill or took the shuttle to the nearby village. On the last day, some of us decided to pay the extra fee to visit the onsite spa, and it was very nice to rest our tired muscles in its sauna before going home. Overall, we had a wonderful time and heartily recommend Summit Resort to others.

Subject: Lease renewal

Dear Ms. Gibbs,

I am writing to request the renewal of my lease for a one-year term. Bates Plaza has been a good location for the gallery, so I hope to continue operating there.

However, I would like to change one of the terms of our agreement. Could the waste disposal requirement be lowered to just once a week? My business does not produce much trash. Please let me know if this is possible.

Sincerely,

Nathan Hoffman

Artist Spotlight: Lavanya Gulati

EDMONTON, Canada (5 February)—Painter Lavanya Gulati is grabbing the attention of the art world through her beautiful murals. These large-scale works of art, most of which depict the natural world, can be seen from public streets throughout Edmonton and a few other cities across Canada.

"I love the process of turning something artificial, like a concrete wall, into an entirely new creation," says Ms. Gulati. "Despite living in urban areas, we can still find ways to stay connected to the environment. I hope that my work reminds people about this."

Customer input is an essential part of the planning process, and Ms. Gulati requires a minimum of three weeks to finalize any design plan. She says that her painting can be completed quickly once she has a clear vision of the final result.

Surprisingly, Ms. Gulati's customers are expected to clean and treat the area where the mural is to be painted. Ms. Gulati says this not only cuts down on costs but also allows customers to be a part of the work. She advises on supplies for this task and has a video with comprehensive step-by-step instructions on her Web site, www.gulatiart.ca.

Subject RE: Update

Date September 15

Dear Ms. Braswell,

Thank you for the update on the budget limit for your product tutorial videos. In accordance with your wishes, we will reduce the scope of our services to be provided. Since your project is still in its early stages, we have not begun the casting process, so you can rest assured that this change will not inconvenience anyone.

I was also glad to learn that you have finished mapping out the basic points you want each video to cover. Please send us that information and give us access to Accounti. To produce the scripts, our team will need to try out the software's features ourselves and then meet with you or another Accounti employee who can answer any questions we have about it. We have availability on the morning of Thursday, September 18 or the afternoon of Monday, September 22. Please let us know which period would work best for you.

Jeong-Ho Woo

I think it was a trout. I also saw some smaller fish swimming in the water. The water was very cold, but I enjoyed swimming in it. I spent about an hour swimming in the lake. I then got out of the water and dried myself off. I took a break and then continued my walk along the trail. I saw some birds flying overhead. I heard some birds singing. I also saw some butterflies flying around. I enjoyed the peacefulness of the lake and the surrounding forest. It was a great day for a swim.
